PRESENTS TO THE REGENTS.

Valuable Gifts Made to the State University.

Mrs. Hearst Will Pay for a Twelve Thousand Dollar Building.

The University of California was the recipient of some handsome gifts at the meeting of the Board of Regents yesterday. Regents John Budd and Martin of the Buildings and Grounds Committee made a report in which they dwelt upon the great necessity of appropriating $6500 for the erection of a mines and mining building and also of appropriating $8000 for its equipment. They had barely completed their report when Mrs. Phoebe Hearst arose and quietly remarked: "I am deeply interested in the subject of mines and mining and I would be pleased to furnish the means to erect and equip the proposed building."

The gift was received with thanks and Mrs. Hearst was given full power to act in the matter.

The second gift and surprise was developed in the reading of correspondence between Regent Reinsteins and the Alaska Commercial Company, in which the latter gave to the University the museum of Alaskan products, natural and artificial, gathered for the company and its members during many years, which museum is second only to that of the Smithsonian Institution.

The gift was accepted in due form and Regent Reinsteins delegated to draft resolutions of thanks commensurate with the generosity of the donors.

Dr. Jacob Voorsanger, in a communication, presented the University with 1,000 rare and valuable volumes, to be added to the Semitic library. The gift was formally accepted and arrangements for the reception of the rare volumes ordered made.

Professor J. M. Schaeberle of the Lick Observatory offered his resignation, stating in a letter that he had been a candidate for the directorship of the observatory and therefore thought that the only straightforward course was to resign. The regents thought he was too sensitive and urged a reconsideration, granting him leave of absence for one year, with full pay.

Professor Edwin J. James, a well-known Eastern scholar, was invited by the president of the University to deliver an address on commencement day, May 12. The invitation was accepted.

The question of allowing Lieutenant Cloman permission to occupy one of the cottages on the University grounds without charge created some discussion, and was laid over for consideration at the special meeting to be held next Tuesday.

Professor Sherwood asked to be allowed to take his departure early in April, stating in his letter that he had completed his work for that month. It was agreed that he be given his April salary in full, having faithfully attended to his duties.

Curtis H. Lindley, well known as an exponent of mining jurisprudence, has been asked by Professor William Carey Jones to deliver a series of mining lectures at the University, which he will do without compensation.

COMMITTEES ARE APPOINTED.

Columbias Arrange for Their Entertainment.

Meeting of the Alert Fire Fighters—Posens Convene This Evening.

The committees in charge of the Columbias' entertainment, which will be held on the evening of the 27th, were appointed last night.

At the meeting of the Alert Fire Company last night a vote of thanks was tendered the Columbia company for the invitation to the house warming. A vote of thanks was also tendered the donor of the fire badges. The gift of a number of books and magazines was acknowledged.

The Bell committee was granted further time.

An assessment of 25 cents was levied on each member for the purchase of certain articles for the company.

It was decided to fine members who absent themselves from three consecutive meetings 25 cents. Any member who fails to answer to his name at roll call after three consecutive fires will be dismissed from the company.

President Loveland of the Columbias gave the boys some good advice and the meeting adjourned.

The Posens meet tonight to consider the purchase of a horse.

Found Drowned.

The body of a well dressed man whose identity is as yet unknown, was taken from the bay at Pinole yesterday afternoon. Some boys noticed the corpse as it floated near the shore, and after summoning help fished it out. The remains appear to be those of a man 60 years of age, and they have probably been in the water three weeks.

Two Boys Dismissed.

R. Pettignew and I. Coburn, two boys who were jointly accused of assaulting Minnie Birch, a Berkeley girl, were dismissed yesterday by Judge Ellsworth. The evidence was the same against them as that against Manuel Roderick who was last week acquitted by a jury. The girl declined to testify to important matters and it was thought impossible to gain a conviction of the boys, hence their dismissal. The boys were defended by Attorney Gentry.

Bituminizing Shattuck Avenue.

LETTER FROM MR. WHITTEMORE.

Formerly Pastor of the First Baptist Church.

He Writes on the Improvements That Have Just Been Completed.

The First Baptist Church has received a letter of congratulation from the Rev. H. C. Whittemore, a former pastor, who is now an attorney at Livermore Falls, Maine, and who writes to express his appreciation of the energy displayed by his old congregation. In the course of his letter addressed to the church, Mr. Whittemore says:

"Since the day when my relationship with you as pastor was severed, I have not ceased to watch your progress with unabated interest, whether it led through sunshine or through shadow. And now that by the grace of God and the loyalty of Christian hearts, the day star of your substantial prosperity seems to have arisen, I would extend my hand in Christian sympathy across the mountains and the plains which lie between us, to bear to you my heartfelt congratulations.

"It would be the source of unspeakable delight to look once more into the faces of those who walked side by side with us during the early struggles of the church.

"As I contemplate your future I see in vision difficulties yet to be overcome, but there are few churches we believe, who have more to

"My brethren, let me in addition to my congratulations, urge upon you that you take for your ideal in church growth, the motto 'First quality and then quantity.' And may every heart melted by divine grace in your midst, be crystallized by the power of the Holy Spirit into a living stone, granite for the truth, then while we recall the days of your heroic past, we may also write above the opening gateway of your prophetic future, the emblem of a final victory and triumph.

"Whatever the future of the country is to be, socially, morally or in any other respect, depends upon the power and influence of the Christian church. With a population so cosmopolitan, made up of representatives from almost every corner of the globe, who have brought with them the ideas and prejudices of these different sections, and as widely remote in their moral conceptions as the Puritan and the Pagan, it seems to us that the amalgamation of this great mass, and the evolving of a noble Christian citizenship therefrom, is a task in which the church must be the chief performer."

California Art Club

The next meeting of the California Art Club occurs this evening at 8 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. Kierulff, Shattuck avenue, Berkeley. The subjects of water color painting and Ceramics will be discussed and illustrated by Mrs. Kimball Easton and Miss Hanscom. Music by E. Dixon.

The Town Well.

Arrangements will be made to test the capacity of the well at the Town hall. It is believed that a great deal of water for street sprinkling purposes will be obtained.

STACEY ROGERS

IN COURT.

The preliminary hearing of Stacey Rogers, charged with the murder of Edgar E. Halsey at South Berkeley on March 29th, was commenced yesterday before Justice Lawrence of East Oakland. Deputy District Attorney L. S. Church conducted the case for the people and the defense was in the hands of Attorneys E. N. Gibson and J. A. Lucas.

The actions of the accused on the day of the shooting were traced through the testimony of George E. Davis Sr., George E. Davis Jr. and Arthur Willmot. The latter swore that he accompanied Rogers to the house of Charles McGreer late in the afternoon and that Rogers borrowed a revolver from McGreer.

The hearing went on today and will probably consume two days more.

An Urgent Call.

The wives, mothers, daughters and sisters of the members of Durant Lodge No. 268, P. and A. Populist Club Organized.

The Forty-ninth Assembly district Populists organized a club last Monday evening. The meeting was called to order by G. L. Palpbbaum. W. R. Batten of Berkeley was elected permanent chairman and Mr. Atkins was elected secretary of the club.

Santha Amelia Olson, a fourteen-year-old Emeryville girl, was committed to Whittier yesterday. Her parents are unable to control her.

Miss L. Watermead of North Berkeley will spend the summer at Los Angeles.

IMPORTANT.

On May 1st we will remove to San Francisco—corner Geary Street and Grant Avenue—(formerly occupied by the City of Paris Dry Goods House). Our stock will be increased in all departments, making it one of the largest west of Chicago. CLARK, WISE & CO., 1108 Broadway.

MILITARY SANITATION.

Disease Is Far More Deadly Than the Bullet.

Colonel Greenleaf Delivers a Lecture on Hygiene of Camps and Marches.

Colonel Greenleaf lectured yesterday before the class in Military 2, on "The Military Hygiene of Camps and Marches." He said that the record of military casualties shows that in spite of modern improvements in firearms the proportion of deaths and disabilities from disease is still the greatest percentage. In this connection is seen the necessity of rigid sanitary regulations as a preventive of disability from sickness.

In camps and bivouacs, particularly of a temporary character, regulations must enforce a rigid observance of sanitary precautions. In permanent encampments careful attention must be given to location, particularly with reference to malarial marshes and the securing of drainage of the camp; to water, unpolluted from above; to grass and fodder for horses; to a free loose soil which prevents dampness.

When the camp is built, the streets must be kept absolutely clean from refuse and rubbish piles which can breed contagion. The kitchen for each company camp should be arranged on the flank away from the prevailing wind; each kitchen carefully provided with sinks in the ground for liquid refuse and fires for burning solid refuse. The cremation of kitchen refuse is an essential factor in camp sanitation; as the systematic removal and destruction of refuse tends to make the men clean.

In a camp of tents the U. S. army uses four varieties of tent. But all tents should be ventilated by systematic regulations for opening them periodically to the air. They should be drained also by gutters around the sides to keep the ground of the tent dry.

On the march the men must march in route step to make the best progress and with a steady movement, without tiresome stoppages. The men must be cautioned as to drinking water too freely when tired by thirst on the march. Walkers and athletes are familiar with the trick of carrying a small pebble in the mouth to prevent thirst. Periodical rests once an hour are necessary and, as football men do, the men should rest flat on their backs.

The lecture closed with some general remarks on the accoutrements, etc., of marching order.

Mad Dogs.

The war spirit or some other distemper seems to have taken hold of Oakland dogs, for it became necessary yesterday for policemen to shoot no less than three of the canine race.

A. M. Thompson of Golden Gate is suffering from an attack of the grip.

O. T. Meyer, late of Sacramento, has taken up his residence at North Berkeley.

A SECRET FOR FOUR MONTHS.

Surprise Caused by a Wedding Announcement.

Two Students Who Got Married and Said Nothing About It.

Married for four months and none knew anything about it, is the romantic story that has just come to light in the lives of two Berkeley students, one a Sophomore in the University department of mechanical engineering, and the other a pretty middle of the High School. They are C. F. Balaam, U. C., and Miss Gwynedd Carnall, B. H. S., '99. The young couple were secretly married just after the close of the Christmas vacation, and none of their most intimate friends knew of their romance until they themselves decided to announce it. To say that the announcement has surprised their classmates would be putting it mildly.

The young bride is a daughter of the late Nathan C. Carnall and resides at 2159 Vine street, North Berkeley. Charles Frederick Balaam, the student husband, is 21 years of age and is just completing his second year at the University. He comes from the southern part of the State, having graduated from the Visalia High school in 1896.

The couple met last September and an attachment quickly sprang up. The course of true love ran smoothly for once and they were quickly wedded.

About two weeks ago the bride's mother, Mrs. Carnall, learned of her daughter's marriage. Mrs. Balaam decided that the time was quite proper for her to announce her marriage to her friends. Mr. and Mrs. Balaam will leave Berkeley at the close of the college term, which occurs in about three weeks, for Visalia, where the groom will engage in business.

Prof. Syle's Lecture.

Professor L. Du Pont Syle will lecture next Sunday evening in Stiles Hall on "The Lesson of the Roman Republic to the American." The lecture will be the fourth of the series being given under the auspices of the Unitarian society.

Mrs. Daniel Donovan left this morning for Corning, Tehama county.

TALKS TO ADVERTISERS.

It is not the object of an advertiser to have his advertisement read, unless by the reading he can sell his goods. To sell goods is the real object of advertising.

If everybody reads your ads and do not buy, you are a big loser. You have not only lost your opportunity spent in advertising, but you have lost the confidence of those whose attention you have attracted by your advertisement—certainly a heavy loss.

You must be sincere, and the impression of your sincerity must be upon your "ad." These cute housewives know a thing or two themselves; you can't fool them. Remember, when you advertise, that the public does not patronize you because they like you, but because you have something which they need and want. Remember that it is not what you think, but what the public thinks, that makes an "ad" successful. Exchange.

WATER INSPECTORS.

The Alameda Water Company is putting in meters as rapidly as possible, but before the system is completed millions of gallons of the precious fluid will have been wasted. A leaf should be taken out of San Francisco's books. Over there inspectors are employed to circulate among the consumers and stop the waste to as great an extent as possible.

INSURANCE METHODS.

Editor Gazette: I would like to call the attention of your readers to the following:

Some of the insurance policies issued by the compact companies contain a provision, or implied contract, which is inserted by means of red rubber stamps and often escapes the consideration of the insurer, which is held to preclude any possible cancellation of the policy in case of a reduction of rates without the consent of the company.

The following copies of this provision are from policies which run for three years, and upon which the usual rate for risks made for that time was made:

"The company hereby agrees that it will not cancel this policy on account of a reduced rate, nor increase the rate hereon unless there is an increase of hazard, and in consideration of the reduced rate granted by this company the assured hereunder hereby waives his right to cancel this policy without consent of said company."

Another of the red stamp provisions is "the company issuing this policy agrees not to raise the rate except for increase of hazard and in consideration of the rate at which this policy is issued the assured agrees not to cancel it unless the property is sold."

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Editor Gazette: The electric light on Stuart and Adeline streets has been done away with. The place is very dangerous at night, particularly as the street is being broken up in order that a new railroad track may be laid. The light is needed very much. If there are no funds to pay for electric lights taxes should be increased. My boy had a narrow escape from being killed at the place one night last summer on account of the light being extinguished. I hope that the light will soon be turned on again, otherwise I will have to move to some other city, where they have lights. Fred Holman.

The meeting of the North Berkeley Improvement Club last night was devoted to a discussion of the water question. It was decided to agitate municipal ownership. IN THE INTEREST OF GOOD ROADS.

The board of directors of the Good Roads League of California met yesterday and the secretary reported that there are now twenty-five organized leagues in as many counties in the state. It was decided that the league will give its assistance, support and influence at the next legislature to all the road laws that passed through both houses of the legislature and which were vetoed by Governor Budd. It will have plenty of friends at Sacramento who will resurrect the old measures. The directors decided to send the brightest of the members of its many branch leagues to the supervisory convention that is to be held in Napa on May 17, to work in the interest of better roads in the country.
